Production Fees & Publication Fees

Production Fees: We currently do not charge members of the Brown Community for producing five digital images. Requests for more than five images are handled on a case-by-case basis and may incur charges of $5.00 per image. All non-Brown users will be charged $10.00 per image. Users pay the cost of library-supplied storage media (CDs, DVDs, etc.). Orders that are mailed will incur a charge for postage. Postage is on a sliding scale, depending on the number of disks. Minimum charge for postage is $5.00.

Publication Fees: Digital images requested on this form are produced for study and examination purposes only. Publication of these images in any media (print, web, etc.) must be approved in advance. Publication fees are imposed for the commercial use of digital images. Fees are waived at the discretion of the Library for approved nonprofit uses. An Application to Publish and further information about publication fees are available at:
