REGULATIONS GOVERNING PUBLICATION

1. Permission to publish, in circumstances where the Library is qualified to grant it, requires proper completion, signing, and approval of this form. Until a fully executed copy of this form has been returned to the applicant, permission cannot be granted.
2. No publication fee is required for use of Brown University Library special collections material in scholarly publications. The Library retains sole right to judge what constitutes a non-scholarly or commercial publication. Publication fees for non-scholarly or commercial publication are in addition to fees for reproduction.
3. All negatives and color transparencies remain the property of Brown University Library and must be returned promptly.
4. Approval of this application authorizes publication only in a single new work of a facsimile or quotation from the material identified above. Such authorization is not exclusive and Brown University does not thereby surrender its own right to publish or to grant others permission to do so.
5. Credit shall be given as follows: "Brown University Library."
6. The Library can grant permission to publish only those manuscripts in its possession literary rights to which have been assigned to Brown or are in the public domain.
7. The undersigned expressly assumes all responsibility for observing applicable laws of copyright, literary property, and libel and covenants and agrees to exonerate, indemnify and hold the University, its Trustees, Fellows, Officers, Servants and Agents harmless for and on account of any and all loss, cost, damage or expense arising out of or in any way connected with the use which the undersigned makes or suffers or permits to be made of the materials identified above.
